

Welcome to the UK ENIC newsletter

A round-up of the latest news, updates, training and events from the team at UK ENIC.

Highlights from ENIC NORTH 2026

Delegates from across the international education sector attended ENIC NORTH 2026 in Scotland earlier this month.

Held on 28 April at the Sir Jim McDonald Technology and Innovation Centre, University of Strathclyde, Glasgow, our one-day conference explored the theme: 'Navigating change: shared challenges, collective solutions'.

The event featured a packed programme including a plenary session, panels, presentations, interactive labs and networking opportunities, featuring a high calibre of experts who discussed a broad range of topics.

Highlights included our plenary panel and Q&A session called 'Change, Challenges, Solutions – the Oxford debate'.

Read more

Save the date reminder: UKENIC26

Following the success of ENIC NORTH 2026 in Glasgow, we wanted to remind you about UKENIC26 – our two-day conference in London later this year.

It will be held from Monday 30 November to Tuesday 1 December at the QEII Centre in the heart of Westminster.

After more than 25 years, the UK ENIC conference remains one of the biggest education and skills events in the UK.

Read more

UK ENIC visits The Hague for REACH Project update

Representatives from UK ENIC met with international colleagues in the Netherlands recently, as part of a project called ‘Beyond Recognition: Enhancing Credential Evaluation Impact through Stakeholder Outreach’ (REACH).

Co-funded through the Erasmus+ KA3 NARIC call and co-ordinated by Nuffic, REACH brings together ENIC-NARIC offices, VET recognition centres and research organisations who are experts in credential evaluation across Europe and North America.

It aims to understand and measure how recognition services can best support individuals who are seeking appropriate employment in the EU and employers needing to assess foreign qualifications.

Read more

UK ENIC attends UNESCO working group

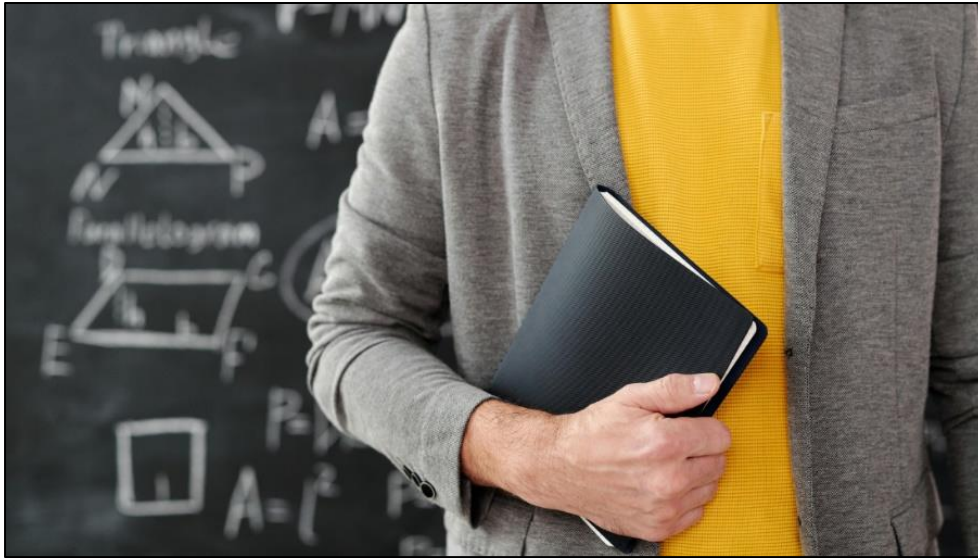

UK ENIC colleagues were among delegations attending the UNESCO open-ended working group on the relationship between the Global and Regional Conventions earlier this month.

Representatives from Australia, Estonia, France, the Holy See, Morocco, Senegal and South Africa also attended the session on 22 April, alongside the UNESCO secretariat.

Chaired by UK ENIC's Head of Policy and Engagement Chris Lyons, the purpose of the group is to develop a subsidiary text to encourage countries to become signatories of the Global Convention.

Read more

Ask the experts – UK PGCE

In the latest edition of our ‘Ask the experts’ feature, our Research, Data and Insights team is answering another popular question that members ask us.

This month, UK ENIC’s Research Manager Emma Kirby provides the answer to this question: what are the two types of UK PGCE?

Read more

Follow us for social media updates in 2026

The monthly UK ENIC newsletter aims to provide you with relevant and useful news, updates and announcements.

As it is issued at the end of each month, there are inevitably times when some information included here has already been provided to followers of our social media channels.

As a reminder, here are the main UK ENIC social media channels which offer followers useful updates: UK ENIC X \(Twitter\) and UK ENIC Facebook.

We have also recently launched our new UK ENIC Linked In channel – feel free to follow for updates.

| READ MORE